

MEMORY VERSE

“So teach us to number our days that we may get a heart of wisdom.”
Psalm 90:12

MONDAY

- Read Acts 20

In what ways does Paul reflect an eternal perspective in these verses?

---

---

---

What does Paul value even more than his own life?

---

---

---

How does your life need to reflect a greater eternal perspective?

---

---

---

---

TUESDAY

- Read Matthew 6:19-34

What do these verses have to say about the proper perspective on material possessions?

---

---

---

How does anxiety about material things reveal the lack of an eternal perspective?

---

---

---

How can you practice the instruction in verse 33?

---

---

---

WEDNESDAY

- Read 1 Peter 1:22-25

What are the things that these verses indicate will last forever?

---

---

---

Why should this motivate us to love one another from the heart?

---

---

---

How can your love for others today reflect an eternal perspective?

---

---

---

---

THURSDAY

- Read Psalm 90

How does reflecting on the eternity of God put this life into perspective?

---

---

---

What does it mean to number our days, and why should you do this?

---

---

---

How will you seek to make this day count for eternity?

---

---

---

FRIDAY

- Read James 4:13-17

Why is it arrogance to make plans without considering the will of God?

---

---

---

Why is it important for you to see the brevity of life?

---

---

---

What plans have you been making without seeking the perspective and will of God?

---

---

---

---

SATURDAY

- Read Psalm 103:15-22

What is the nature of man?

---

---

---

How can the eternal love of God shape your perspective on this life?

---

---

---

Thank God for His eternal love for you.
